Warm Hands, Warm Hearts

Cold weather can be tough on everyone, but none more so than the unhoused and disadvantaged.

Following the success of our Christmas Sock Tree, the Worship & Education Ministry is asking everyone to bring in donations of new gloves and mittens. These will be displayed on a garland in the sanctuary until the Sunday following Valentine's Day (Feb. 18) when they will be collected and donated.

There is a pressing need for this, so please help fill our Glove Garland as a visible sign of God's love for all!

The Eternal Bottle Drive is still happening

Containers for revenue can be placed in the coatroom. Proceeds go to the family camp weekend in May at Rundles Mission.

One of our longtime members Gerald Tookey has been moved to assisted living at the Fairview Health Complex. It would be wonderful if some of our members would consider sending a card or a message to lift his spirits.
